GENERAL INFORMATION

The Federal Aviation Act provides for issuance of dealers' aircraft registration certificates to be used as an alternative for the certificate of aircraft registration. This form identifies the applicant as a person engaged in the business of manufacturing, distributing, or selling aircraft. The signature certifies U.S. citizenship as required by the Act. Incomplete submission will prevent or delay issuance of dealers' aircraft registration certificates.

1. A citizen of the United States means (a) an individual who is a citizen of the United States or one of its possessions, or (b) a partnership of which each member is such an individual, or (c) a corporation or association created or organized under the laws of the United States or of any State, Territory, or possessions of the United States, of which the president and two thirds or more of the board of directors and other managing officers thereof are such individuals and in which at least 75 per centum of the voting interests is owned or controlled by persons who are citizens of the United States or one of its possessions. (Section 101(16) of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958 (49 U.S.C. 1301 (16))).

2. Before operating an aircraft he owns while using his dealer's aircraft registration certificate, the holder of the certificate (other than a manufacturer) must send to the FAA Aircraft Registry evidence satisfactory to the Administrator that he is the owner of the aircraft. (Limitations may be found in Section 47.69 of the Federal Aviation Regulations.)

3. A Dealer's Aircraft Registration Certificate expires one year after the date on which it was issued. All additional certificates expire on the date of expiration of the original certificate.

4. The fee for a Dealer's Aircraft Registration Certificate is $10 and $2 for each additional Dealer's Aircraft Registration Certificate issued to the same dealer
